

Thank you for your interest in the Anna Sosenko Assist Trust.

Starting in May, 2009, grant applications to the Anna Sosenko Assist Trust will be available to select individuals, upon review of a statement of intent.

Q: What is a statement of intent, and how do I submit it?

A: If you would like to be considered for a Sosenko grant, you must submit a separate letter of intent via email to info@AnnaSosenkoTrust.org with "Statement of Intent by (your name)" on the Subject line. The letter should be no more than two (2) pages long and clearly outline your needs and purposes, as well as the anticipated outcomes, should you be awarded a grant.

Q: How and when will I know if I have been selected to continue with the application process?

A: Letters of intent are reviewed frequently, and an Anna Sosenko Assist Trustee will contact you for additional materials, only if your submission meets our requirements and is compatible with our stated objectives.

The high volume of submissions prevents us from contacting applicants whose work we are unable to support. We ask that you refrain from contacting us about your letter of intent and/or subsequent application.

Q: If I am invited to continue with the application process, what additional materials will I be expected to submit?

A: If you are invited to apply to the Anna Sosenko Assist Trust, you will be asked to submit by regular mail the following:

- Grant application
- Supplemental Materials
- Press clippings
- Letters of recommendation

Please note that due to the high volume of submissions, we will not be able to return supplemental materials.

Anna Sosenko Assist Trust Guidelines

Anna Sosenko Assist grants are primarily earmarked for the needs of early career professionals interested in developing projects and performances that will expand and challenge their professional development and exposure.

The Sosenko Trust supports:

- Rehearsal Expenses
- Performance Attire
- Accompanist Fees
- Recording and Photography Costs
- Incidental project costs
- Musical arrangement costs

The Sosenko Trust does not support:

- Health Related Expenses
- Certain Travel Costs
- Continuing Lessons and Studies